Excerpt of pertinent information :

1. The Romanian Government has assured the British Delegation that if former Prime Minister Radescu is released he will not be further molested. This was in response to a request by Le Rougetel, British Political Adviser.

Comment: Radescu has been taken into custody by the British following his resignation on February 28 and a violent press campaign threatening his life which ensued.

2. The Government also agrees to call of the Secret Police which has watched the British Legation since he has been there. Both agreements were promised in writing. The acting British Commissioner requested from General Vinogradov, Chief of Staff, AGC, similar assurances. Vinogradov promised a written assurance and the British plan to release Radescu upon receipt of the letter.

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
